What you should know before arriving...

This is Sackville, New Brunswick, Canada!

2008 Cultural Capital of Canada

Sackville, New Brunswick nestled on the western border of the famed Tantramar Marshes is one of those unique places where you will find the warmth and tranquility of a small town in combination with opportunities normally found in larger urban centres. Sackville is only thirty minutes from downtown Moncton and less than ten minutes from Amherst, Nova Scotia. Sackville is located in the centre of the Maritime Provinces on the east coast of Canada.

New Brunswick's Character

www.TourismNewBrunswick.ca

Be it First Nations, Acadian, Loyalist, Brayon, Scottish, Irish or the many others, today our ethnically, religiously and linguistically diverse cultural mosaic is on display everywhere. From the kitchen parties to the street festivals, you'll find traditional fiddle music, hearty cuisine and foot-stomping joie de vivre (love of life). From sophisticated urban flair to charming country villages along extraordinary seashores, New Brunswickers are proud to welcome any visitor with a taste for past, present and future adventures.
